4. Matters Arising:

The group are yet to appoint another secretary. Jeff Shaw is to complete a short job description which can then be distributed. BH asked if Julie Higham would like to become group secretary. JH would like to see a job description before committing to the role.

BW asked if the group could write a letter to Eddie Crabtree thanking him for his service to the group over a number of years. This was agreed by all.

JonH asked for an update on the Stockport Sports Village community use agreement. ID stated that the agreement is been amended after consultation with a number of groups.

5. Website & Affiliation:

No update was provided this month protect a larger area of the pitch. The club are part funding the remainder of the cost.

The application was passed by the committee

Stockport Eagles JFC

- Requesting £300 to subsidise the cost of a new football session for 5 – 7 year olds. The grant would reduce the cost for a number of weeks and allow to become sustainable.

The group requested more information about this application. Where do the club train and could they use the 10 hours community use village at Stockport Sports Village to help start up the session.

Stockport Basketball Club

- Requesting £300 towards kit for a new team. The club have seen an increase in the number of girls and are entering another team in the under 14 national league. The club will fund the remaining cost of the kit.

The application was passed by the committee.

9. Any Other Business

BH has stepped down from the role as director of Life Leisure. BW stated that the group should ask whether Sport Stockport are required to fill the vacancy on the board.

YS stated that the junior bowls festival will take place at Alexandra Park on Wednesday 22nd August and asked in JonH can attend to present the trophy. ID said that he would get the Sport Stockport banners from Ian Burnett.

ID informed the group that a number of clubs have been successful in the recent Sport England – Inspired facilities funding round. Stockport Rugby Club and Burnage Rugby Club both received £50,000 whilst Stockport School of Gymnastics were awarded just over £20,000.

Next Meeting – Tuesday 21st August, 7.30pm
